

Wednesday 22nd February 2023

Dear Respected Parent/Carer

Assalaamu alaikum - Peace be with you

Ref: World Book Day

As part of our drive to maintain, promote and engage our students in reading, we will be celebrating World Book Day by holding several events in the week beginning the 27th of February. Please do look out for our updates throughout the day through our twitter account @edengirlsslough.

Dress up as a book character

On Wednesday 1st March all students have the option to dress up as a book character for the day. This can be from any book. However, if it is from one of our Star Readers books, they will receive prizes. Prizes will also be given for best dressed, and most original costume.

Please be aware that there is no expectation for parents to go to the expense of buying a new costume - we are proud of how creative our students are, and it would be lovely to see homemade costumes. We look forward to seeing students' interpretation of their characters and to seeing the characters come to life on the day. Please do ensure if your daughter is participating in dressing for the World Book Day, the costume is modest in line with our school ethos.

It is not mandatory for your daughter to participate in dressing up for World Book Day. She should attend in school uniform if not participating. This is not a non-school uniform day but rather a celebration of reading.

Yours faithfully,

Samina Jafferi

Deputy Director of Learning for English
